The Hundred Club provides Scholarships for the Widows and Children of New Hampshire Police Officers and Firefighters who have lost their lives in the line of duty. What happens when a firefighter is killed rescuing victims from a burning building? When a police officer is killed by an armed criminal? When a conservation officer is killed in the line of duty? How does the widow finance her children's education? It is to fill this need that The Hundred Club of New Hampshire exists....to provide scholarships for the widows and children.

The benefits provided by The Hundred Club to the widows and children include college scholarships, summer camp for youngsters, and birthday & holiday gifts.

Supporters of The Hundred Club harbor a special feeling of gratitude for police officers and firefighters. Every day these dedicated men and women risk their lives in upholding the law and in protecting our lives and property.

Following are testimonials the Hundred Club has received from widows who have lost their husbands in the line of duty:

“Thank you doesn’t seem enough to truly show the gratitude that we have for everybody involved with the Hundred Club. The amount of love, support and kindness you all have shown our family is beyond belief. Thank you endlessly for the love and support.”

“During this trying time, it means so much that we’re remembered by the Hundred Club. The best we can do is take care of each other and you have done that for us for many years.”

“Thank you for the ongoing treasured gifts. When no one any longer remembers and mentions the loss of my husband, the Hundred Club always remembers!”

“There are no words to express my family’s gratitude for your generosity. My daughters and I have been overwhelmed by the ongoing support from the Hundred Club. In this most difficult time, we are blessed.”

“I want to thank you for your kindness ... to me and our family. Over the years, I have been so personally grateful for your support. And I know my family has too. If it wasn't for your help, I wouldn't have had nearly the opportunities I have today. I'm privileged and blessed ... Thanks again so much for your support and kindness.”

New Hampshire's police officers and firefighters dedicate the greater part of their lives caring for the safety of the citizens of New Hampshire, often risking their lives while doing so.
